DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/3/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claims 1, 11 and 21-23, "at least one pleat is folded perpendicular to the lower rim" is not supported in the original disclosure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 2, 3, 7-13 and 17-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bosl et al. (2005/0000931). Bosl et al. teaches, in fig. 4, 5 and page 2, paragraph [0031], a tamper evident closure comprising a J-hook retention member or flaps 60 including a plurality of pleated retaining elements (the flaps could be processed to introduce fold lines, pleats or the like, see paragraph [0031]), which are arranged to engage rotational locking structure 24 of a container.

6. Claims 1-11 and 18-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takano (6,109,464)). Tokano teaches, in figs. 1, 2 and 7, a tamper evident closure comprising a J-hook retention member 5 including a plurality of pleated retaining elements, which are arranged to engage locking structure 13 of a container. The retaining element defines a leading edge and a trailing edge (see fig. 10).

7. Claims 1-3, 7-11 and 18-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Barriac (4,801,031). Barriac teaches, in figs. 5, 8, 10 and 11, a tamper evident closure comprising a J-hook retention member 30 including a plurality of pleated retaining elements 33 which are arranged to engage locking structure 37 of a container.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 12-17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takano in view of Ochs (4,813,561) or German et al. (6,276,543).

Takano does not disclose a container comprising rotational locking structure.

Ochs or German et al. teach, a container comprising rotational locking structure 23 and 63, respectively, to preclude rotation of a tamper evident band.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the Takano invention with the container including rotational locking structure, as taught by Ochs or German et al., in order to easily separate of the closure portion from the tamper evident band due to the rotational locking structure.

10. Claims 12, 13 and 17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barriac in view of Ochs (4,813,561) or German et al. (6,276,543).

Barriac does not disclose a container comprising rotational locking structure.

Ochs or German et al. teach, a container comprising rotational locking structure 23 and 63, respectively, to preclude rotation of a tamper evident band.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the Barriac invention with the container including rotational locking structure, as taught by Ochs or German et al., in order to easily separate of the closure portion from the tamper evident band due to the rotational locking structure.
